Lars

I mean do you see that red dot on your chest?
I've got a guy in the trees waiting for my signal.
If I don't get that bag of food you'll have no meaning to search for.

So...
you mean it's the LITTLE THINGS in life. The simple pleasures that make it all worthwhile!
A good meal, a moment with friends...
No...

Why do we wake up every day, just to have life kick us back down?
What's the MEANING of life, little bird?
To feed me.
